

Hello,

Warm weather is coming, and we are very excited about our new pool membership cards! We are offering single and family membership for residents and non-residents. We are also offering single and couple memberships for senior residents.

New this year, you will receive a digital or physical membership card. The choice is yours! The membership card will need to be scanned each time you enter the Community Park Pool.

How you Register for your membership has also changed this year. Please click on the link below to for step-by-step instructions.
